The northwestern section, the former than Barracks, was destroyed, and the other sections were occupied by KBN (Corps of Internal Security) and Militia personnel. Militia personnel used the entrance on ul. Matejki; KBN personnel entered the southern section of the installation via the destroyed section on a Grunwaldzka.
6.	A building just east of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 3, on the east side of ul. Szylinga and on the north side of al. Grumvaldzka, was guarded by KBR personnel. According to local residence, the building housed an office
7.	The northern section of the barracks installation on ul. Golecinska in the Solacz borough was occupied by a Polish tank unit. Ten JC-3 tanks were seen in the billeting area.
	Residents stated that the unit had many more tanks of the same type. Polish soldiers seen there were steel-grey uniforms with black pentagonal collar patches and caps with black bands. All buildings and garages of this section were in good condition.
	Trainees of the tank officers' school were observed marching out in early August 1951, in one column of nine units, with each unit composed of about one company. They were tank uniforms and, on their collar patches, were oak leaves with a sword, the insignia of the officers' schools.
3.	Some preserved buildings of an old heavily damaged barracks installation were located in the Sw. Wojciech borough on either side of ul. Solna, which was blocked by barriers from ul. Kosciuszki halfway down to the intersection of ul. Mynska. The barriers were guarded by Polish sentries with red service color. Due to the traffic restriction, no details on the occupation of the buildings could be determined. The occupied buildings border on ul. Kosciuszki.
